AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT

CANTERBURY.—The male performers are jolly, happy and witty, and the females are gay and lovely, and they all infuse a deal of fun and joviality throughout the large audi-ences who nightly delight to witness their entertainments. It is healthy to laugh. Therefore all who can't laugh ordinarily, should visit Canterbury, and they will be sure to laugh at the extraordinary and funny performances.

ELLINGER & FOOTE'S great moral exhibition opened last night at Odd Fellow's Hall, and to a good audience. Com. Foote, Col. Small, Miss Eliza Nestel (all dwarfs), and the vocalists and musicians did their parts to the satisfaction of all in attendance. Last night the proceeds of the performance were devoted to the benefit of St. Joseph's Orphan Asylum. Tonight the proceeds will go to aid St. Ann's Infant Asylum. A company who is thus liberal in aiding purely benevolent institutions, is certainly deserving of an extended patronage.

SPRECH OF THE PRESIDENT TO THE 166TH OHIO REGIMENT .- The time of the 166th Ohio regiment, Col. Blake commanding, hundred day men, having expired, they yesterday afternoon paid their respects to the President, who made them a speech in front of the Executive mansion. The President addressed them briefly, saying:

I suppose you are going home to see your families and friends. For the service you have done in this great struggle, in which we are all engaged, I present you my sincere thanks for myself and the country. I almost always feel inclined, when I happen to say anything to soldiers, to impress upon them, in a few brief remarks, the importance of success in this contest. It is not merely for to-day, but for all time to come, that we should perpetuate for our children's children this great and free Government which we have enjoyed all our lives. I beg you to remember this, not merely for my sake, but for yours. 1 happen, temporarily, to occupy this White House. I am a living witness that any one of your children may look to come here as my father's child has. It is in order that each of you may have, through this free Government which we have enjoyed, an open field and a fair chance for your industry, enterprise and intelligence. That you may all have equal privileges in the race of life, with all its desirable human aspirations. It is for this the struggle should be maintained, that we may not lose our birthright. Not only for one, but for two or three years, the nation is worth fighting for to secure such an inestimable jewel. The President having concluded, the soldiers gave him three cheers.

GRAND LARCENY .- Randal Jackson and M. A. Jackson, colored, were arrested last night by roundsman Eckloff and officer Wood, of the 4th Ward, for stealing a hundred dollar note from John F. West, colored. The case was taken before Justice Giberson for a hearing. It appeared that last Sunday West and the prisoners engaged a hackman to carry them to various places. During the time that he was employed the hackman saw the hundred dollar note several times. The Jacksons left West in the hack, about 7 o'clock, and the hackman carried West to his home, on I street, and when West took out his money to pay the hack hire he discovered that he had lost his hundred dollar note. West had been drunk since Saturday, and when the officer arrested the Jacksons West was with them at a ball at Sam'l Ireland's, and was arrested with them. Justice Giberson held them to bail for court in $200 each. When arrested the two Jackson's immediately declared that they would fix off West; that he is a deserter; was put in as a substitute by a man named Stokes, at Ellicott's Mills, and has deserted. West was very much inclined to let the case go, but the justice not take part in compounding a felony, and refused to discharge the case. West was held by the police to be turned over to the provost marshal, to stand investigation upon the charge of desertion. West and the Jacksons all claim to be employees of the Sanitary Com-

THRASHING THE WRONG BOY .- This morning, between 7 and 8 o'clock, a hackman named Hildebrand went to the stand corner of 12th and D streets, and getting down from his box employed a colored shoeblack to black his boots. The boy finished his work, and Hildebrand offered him a dollar note in payment. The boy said he had no change, but would go into Randall's grocery store and get it. Hilde-brand replied, "Never mind, I'll pay you after a while." The bootblack said if he didn't pay him he would muddy the boots. Hildebrand went toward his back, and the boy threw mud on his boots; and a white boy named Edward Haye, who was standing by, joined the shoe-black, and thew mud, which, however, did not strike Hildebrand's boots. Hildebrand caught the white boy and beat him so severely that John D. Clark, Esq., interfered, and arrested Hildebrand, and turned him over to the police. The boy Haye was represented to be a wild and bad boy, and Justice Clayton decided to dismiss the case of assault and battery, and fined Hildebrand $3 for disorderly conduct.

FELL OVERBOARD .- A man, named either Daniel or Thomas Harrigan, was drowned from the Charlotte Yanderbilt under the following circumstances: Harrigan took passage on the Vanderbilt from City Point at 10 o'clock a. m. on Monday, where he had been engaged as a laborer in the employ of the Government. Being well supplied with money, he had indulged rather freely in liquor, and in that state went on board the steamer. About 3 p. m. he was attempting, in a spirit of braggadocia, to walk the railing on the port side, when a lurch of the vessel precipitated him into the James river, just below Newport News. The untortunate man sustained himself on the surface for about ten minutes, when he went under. Every exertion was made to save him, and in a moment or two more the boat that went to his assistance would have reached him. Mr. Colmony, the clerk of the Vanderbilt, the second mate, and one of the drowned man's comrades, went out in the boat to his rescue.

INDECENT LANGUAGE.—This morning, Manrice Sullivan was arrested for using indecent language, and for disorderly conduct openly in the street. The witness were a colored woman named Ellen Brooks, and two white females. The colored woman was a tenant of Sullivan, and was going to remove. Fearing a breach of the peace, she got a note from Jus-tice Bates to Serg't Cronin, of the Fourth Ward, asking protection for her. She exhibited this note to Sullivan, and the indecent language complained of was used by Sullivan in reference to Justice Bates, which was heard by ladies sitting by at the time. Sullivan was

TO BE ENLARGED .- The well known Congressional Cemetery here, on account of the increased ratio of interments in it the last two or three years, is becoming crowded. Some 75 to 100 burials there take place monthly, and the vestry have under consideration an immediate enlargement of the ground. It is believed that the land immediately east of the present ground, containing sufficient for about forty thousand sites, will be next improved for burial purposes.

Col. SMALL.-Remember that the great moral Exhibition of Col. Ellinger & Foot this aftermoon at 5 and evening at 8, is for St Ann's Infant Asylum. Let there be a crowd.

IN INVITING the attention of our friends and readers to the advertisement of Mr. Phipps' school, in another column, we are rendering an essential service to all who are solicitous concerning the education of their sons. It has long been the great want of the District that the opportunities for the private instruction of youths have been so restricted. Such successful teachers as Messrs. Wight and Hardy, in Washington, are constantly turning away ap-plicants for seats; while in Georgetown it is many years since any attempt has been made to sustain a select family school for boys. Under these circumstances, Messrs. Cooke, Rittenhouse, and other gentlemen of that city, after taking great pains to procure the very best available talent, succeeded in inducing Mr. Phipps to leave Philadelphia for the purpose of establishing a private family school for their own children and those of their friends. They have erected and furnished a neat and commodious house in private grounds, and have placed it at Mr. Phipps' disposal for the accommodation of such additional pupils as he may be enabled to receive. And in commending this school to those of our readers who have not made a different disposition of their sons, we may confidently quote the lan-guage of a gentleman who has had three chil-dren under Mr. Phipps' care, and who, as having all his life paid particular attention to the cause of education, may be considered good authority on such a subject: "I cannot tell you how sincerely I regret the withdrawal of my boys from such a tutor. As a Christian, a gentleman, a scholar, a companion and a teacher-in every relation in which I desired to have them under the best influences-I never met Mr. Phipps' equal. (*)
